

EmSyS wins National IT awards 2002 on Software Process Excellence

We are happy to announce that EmSyS has been awarded “Process Excellence” award in the just concluded ASEA SEPG conference. The award was part of the “National IT awards2002” organized by Computer Society of India & QAI, New Delhi.

EmSyS was chosen after short-listing from 20 topnotch IT companies including MNCs.

Mr.R.N.Mukhija, Member of the board and Sr.Vice President (Operations) received this recognition of excellence in the presence of eminent delegates & process experts of the IT world in Hyderabad, on 1st August ‘03. The award includes a trophy for the organization & Rs.50,000 /-.

The members of the Quality team (Mr.K.Ganesh Shenoy, Mr.Ashok Kumar & Mr.Subramanya Raju) in EmSyS have been given individual trophies recognizing their efforts in institutionalizing the process practices. The “Process Excellence” award recognizes the best process practices among all the IT industries.

